Note: Attention is drawn to the rules of the club governing boat ownership. See overleaf

Boat Ownership

1. All boats must pass a buoyancy test on being brought to the club and at the beginning of each season thereafter.
2. All boats must carry Third party Insurance (min. £3M) which must be valid before the boat is brought to the club.
3. Before a member brings a new dinghy to the club, approval of the General Committee is required.
4. A member of the General Committee must be informed when a boat changes hands.
5. Membership entitles registration of up to two boats per Member (all boats sailed at the club must be registered). Family members may register further boats. This must be agreed by the General Committee before any additional boats may be brought to the club.
